... We, the staff of the 1947 MEMORY, make the following dedication:

Because of his devotion to his school, his love for his students, and his contagious optimism, we dedicate this annual to Mr. Samuel J. Whatley. Fate decrees that we shall not meet many who shall command our admiration and respect as did “Doc.”

DEDICATION...

Taken from our midst at a time when he was needed, he shall linger long within our memories.

Many students listed as "Academy" are veterans of World War II who are taking Post-Graduate courses in the Academy.
It is not the staff that makes an annual; rather, it is the student body. The book stands or falls on the merits of those students it represents. We, the staff, have faithfully endeavored to record the Fall Quarter of 1946 and the Winter Quarter of 1947 in a manner both pleasing and accurate. We regret we could not offer a bigger book, but even the printing industry has been struck a blow by the evil of inflation. This book, though somewhat larger than that of last year, is still a far cry from the pre-war standards of MEMORY; yet, slowly, but surely, the MEMORY returns to those standards.

We, the Staff of the 1947 MEMORY, wish to thank all of you who have helped us in unofficial capacities, and we wish to thank the Student Body, and to express a desire for pleasant MEMORIES for all of us.

The Youth Fellowship, under the able guidance of Maxine Nail, has made a definite contribution to Christian living at Oxford. It always strives to maintain on the campus and in the community those qualities that go with being a Christian. Its programs have been inspiring and informative. Miss Adams served as Adult Counselor.

MISS ADAMS' CLASS

The Sunday School Classes on the campus are truly the incubators of Christian brotherhood. Under the direction of Mr. Brown and Miss Adams, teachers, and Mr. Walton Strozier, superintendent, these groups move forward in their quest to develop Christian living.

The Lettermen’s Club is the organization composed of those who excel and gain prominence in Emory’s intramural athletic program. Membership in the “E” Club is the ultimate aim of every student interested in athletics. Lettermen’s initiation is anticipated with interest by the student body, but not by the initiates. The highlight of the year’s activities is the annual banquet held during the winter quarter. Mr. Brown is faculty advisor.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club is the organization on the campus for those students who are interested in developing the arts of debating and public speaking. This club also studies current events—discussing world affairs in order to understand them better. Weekly meetings are held with Mr. Strozier acting as chairman.

THE FLORIDA CLUB

The Florida Club is the organization for the natives of Florida on the campus. Their purpose is to bring about a brotherhood among the members.

THE BAND

The Band, under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Steere, has undergone a complete change in program. It makes a distinct contribution to the music of the campus, harboring some of the better musicians of the student body.

WILLIS WOOLBRIGHT . . . President
Composed of a group of boys who sing for the pure joy they receive from it, the Glee Club is an important cog in the Emory "wheel." Besides furnishing music for the church services each Sunday morning, it also presents special programs in Oxford and in the surrounding area. The annual Christmas Carol Service is anticipated with pleasure by all of Newton County. Mr. Arthur Steere directs.

Eugene Cornette . . . President
The Apollo Club is composed of a group of singers from the Oxford Glee Club. Its function is to furnish music for special occasions. Also, it makes appearances out of town as the "Quartet," the "Double Quartet," or as the Apollo Club when a group smaller than the Glee Club is required. Mr. Arthur Steere is director.

The Radio Club is an organization of students who have radio work as a hobby. In order to develop an understanding in the workings of a radio station, Station WEAO broadcasts Sunday afternoons with members arranging and executing the programs.

Richard Spears . . . . President
Organized this year, the Student Artist Lecture Association has rapidly become a leading organization on the Oxford campus. Bert Acker did an excellent job with the tremendous task of organizing, as did the Faculty Advisor, Mr. C. Lee Harwell. This group is the student representation for the Oxford-Covington Artist Lecture Series which each year brings to Newton County the leading lecturers and artists in America.

Featured on the program for this year: Mr. Henry L. Scott, concert pianist and humorist; Sir Hubert Wilkins, explorer and scientist; Mr. Hugh Hodgson, pianist, and Miss Anastasia Marinos, coloratura soprano; Dr. Franz Polgar, mental wizard; The Emory Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. Malcolm Dewey; The Southern Ballet; Frederic Balazs, violinist.

Members: Acker; Aultman; Bolton; Bray; Crow; Estes; Ginn; Harris; Hill; Hillis; Holland; Jarnigan; Johns; Knowles; McGahern; Nichols; O'Steen; Pennington; Saunders; Smith; George; Smith; Herschel.

Few Literary Society is one of the two such organizations on the campus. It meets once weekly for the general purpose of promoting the friendship of its members and developing an interest in public speaking. The programs which are given are both entertaining and informative. Quarterly debates with the other society are especially anticipated. Mr. Elizer serves as faculty advisor.

Henri Freeman ... President, Fall Quarter
Julian Callaway ... President, Winter Quarter
Phi Gamma Society was founded in the early 1840's to develop extra-curricular activities in forensics—debating and the art of public speaking. In those early years Phi Gamma, as well as Few, became centers of social and intellectual life on the campus.

Today Phi Gamma upholds the same traditions on which it was founded. Development of student's interest in culture and intellect is stressed. Mr. Still serves as faculty advisor.

ATHLETICS
CHAMPIONS
B COMPANY
The football season was marked by the usual spirit with which Emory-at-Oxford has greeted this time of the year: keen and friendly competition. Despite the fact that the two openers indicated that the race was to be between “B” and “C”, “A” scored a major upset of the season by defeating “C” Company, 12 to 0, in the fourth game of the season. From this defeat, however, “C” went on to win the championship:

| “C” Company | 14—“A” Company | 0 |
| “B” Company | 13—“A” Company | 0 |
| “C” Company | 13—“B” Company | 6 |
| “A” Company | 12—“C” Company | 0 |
| “B” Company | 6—“A” Company | 0 |
| “C” Company | 7—“B” Company | 0 |

In the All-Star game held in Covington, the “C” Company Champions lost to the “A” and “B” Company All-Stars. The score: All-Stars, 31; “C” Company, 7.

In the Fall Quarter of 1946, the annual ros Country Race event was held. Thomas Owen, a “C” Company man set a new record at 11 minutes and 42 seconds for the two and one tenth mile course:

First Place, Tony Owen, “C” Company...11:42

Second Place, Stanley Moody, “A” Company...12:10

Third Place, Phillip Gibson, “B” Company

First and second place winners were awarded letters. “B” Company won the event.

The Student Body of Emory at Oxford has long been noted for its leadership. Concentrated on the relatively small campus is one of the highest proportions of ability to be found in the state. Oxford is represented in almost all state student movements.
The Student Body of Emory at Oxford has elected the eight men on these pages to the Hall of Fame, expressing in so doing the belief that they are the most outstanding students of the year.
