"MAY OUR MEMORY SERVE US WELL"

Presented by the Students of
EMORY AT OXFORD
OXFORD, GEORGIA
Dedication

It would be impossible to attempt to dedicate this annual by word alone. The English language must grow a great deal before it can include the deepest and most heart-felt sincerity in the spoken or written word.

We have watched him at work. We have watched him during his few leisure hours. We have always been made welcome by him, regardless of the strain he was undergoing at the time. Up until now we have said nothing.

His sense of humor is keen; his smile is relaxation itself; his intellect is amazing. He is always interested in the human side. He has never passed judgment without hearing both sides. His sound and plausible thinking has increased a hundred fold the spirit of efficiency on this campus.

Words cannot express our feeling, but we humbly and with a feeling of gratitude dedicate the 1946 MEMORY to Mr. Ren A. Thorne.
Foreword

Emory speaks down from the years to its present generation in a voice shrouded in reminiscence. The Voice tells of a glorious past—a past founded on true Southern traditions. Yet, the Voice is one of progress. It tells us to forget our provincialisms and to reach out. And so, we would like for this yearbook to add its words to those of that Voice, and in years to come, we would like for it to furnish you with—pleasant Memories.

Administration
One seldom finds a dean more interested in a school and its students. A believer in a well-rounded college education with the emphasis on Christian ideals and standards, Mr. Eady has forever endeared himself in our hearts as a capable dean, an excellent director of the Glee Club, and—most of all—an Emory gentleman.

The Lettermen's Club, composed of men who are outstanding leaders as well as talented athletes, is one of the most active organizations on the campus.

Probably the highlight of the Club’s social functions was the Lettermen's Banquet, with Coach Wallace Butts, of the University of Georgia, as guest speaker.
Memory

THE STAFF has endeavored to turn out an annual worthy of the name “MEMORY.” The annual is far from perfect, yet we sincerely hope that it may mean something to those who knew Oxford so well. We have made mistakes, unintentionally, but we hope to profit from them, and we trust that no one has been offended in any way by our mistakes. Thanks to all of those who have unselfishly served officially or unofficially in putting out this book.

The Florida Club was reorganized the spring quarter of 1945. This club was organized to bring a closer fellowship between Florida boys on this campus and to promote social activities to the members of the organization, and to the entire student body. Since the reorganization the Florida Club presents a trophy to the winning company of each swimming meet on the Emory-at-Oxford campus. Beginning in the Fall Quarter of 1945 the Club repaired the Recreation Hall. This proved to be a worthwhile undertaking. Beginning in the Winter Quarter of 1946 the Club began sponsoring motion pictures on the campus. This has been a very successful and appreciated project.

Phi Delta Omega, organized in 1940 by a group of premedical and predental students, meets weekly under the supervision of the biology and chemistry professors. The primary purpose of the organization is to acquaint its members with the latest achievements in the scientific field, particularly as regards medicine.
The interesting programs and warm friendship enjoyed each week at Phi Gamma will long live in our memories. A society dedicated to serve and to develop the student intellectually and socially, Phi Gamma has set a high standard through the years. The quarterly debates with Few have always highlighted the year for Phi Gamma.

Few Literary Society

The stately building on the east side of the campus has, for nearly a century, been the home of Few Literary Society, where many of the South’s greatest orators have served their apprenticeships. Named after Emory’s first president, this society has always worked for the very best in public speaking. This year Few had good debates, excellent programs and social activities.

No organization deserves more credit for work done during the year than does the Christian Fellowship. The fellowship has as its aim the application of Jesus' principles to everyday life. The influence of this organization through retreats, deputations, prayer groups, and chapel programs will long affect the lives of us all.

THE OXFORD MYF is an excellent example of a group carrying out in detail its motto: “Christ Above All.” Under the Christ-like leadership of Miss Decora Adams, the MYF has become an organization through which the young men and women of Oxford come to know Christ in a more satisfying manner. Excellent programs have brought it to the fore—good programs and a Christian attitude.

Maxine Nail efficiently served as President.
This club, composed of those students who have dedicated their lives to the Christian ministry, did much to develop its members for Christian service and for Christian brotherhood. One of its main projects was that of sending ministerial students out to neighboring churches to preach and to help organize youth movements. The social highlight of the year was the club banquet at the Delaney Hotel in Covington.

Claude Harper . . . Moderator

Junior Board of Stewards

Chosen because of their record of Christian service and leadership, the Junior Stewards did much to further the work of the Allen Memorial Church at Oxford. Guided by the able counsel of the Reverend Charles W. Boleyn, the Junior Stewards served as an intermediate body between the students and the church. During the year the Junior Stewards were honored by a dinner, sponsored by the Senior Board of Stewards of Allen Memorial Church.
We students can never forget those Sunday mornings when we met at ten o'clock in Few Hall. The memories and teachings of our beloved teachers, Miss Adams and Mr. Brown, will live in our hearts forever.
Remember those Monday, Tuesday, and Saturday nights when we "Sons of music, wit, and gladness; troubadours of sunny climes" gathered around the old piano?

We will never forget our able director, Mr. Virgil Y. C. Eady, under whose leadership we presented concerts in various towns in Georgia. The Christmas and Spring concerts and the annual banquet in May were the big events of the year.

One of our duties was to render special religious music each Sunday to the members of Allen Memorial Church. We hope that the congregation received the spiritual benefit from our music that we experienced in preparing it.

Kimbell Price .......................... President
Straight Eight

The Straight Eight is a select group of singers who have charge of special music for chapel exercises.

Under the direction of Dean Eady, the group has sung for special occasions in Covington and other nearby towns.

The Band

The Band practices regularly under the competent direction of Mr. Godfrey Osterman. In addition to playing for special events, the group gives several concerts each year. They play a versatile program consisting of marches, overtures, and semi-classical pieces.
In the Winter Quarter, the Oxford debaters captured two decisions from strong University of Georgia teams. The first of these two debates was held on the University campus, with Clifford Bell and Maxie Estes representing Oxford; the second was held in the Emory Chapel, with Kimbell Price and Claude Harper winning the debate.

The Debate Club’s weekly meetings, held in Candler Hall, featured discussions on current world problems and debate topics.

The quarterly debate club banquet is a much-looked-forward to event, as it is one of the big social affairs of each quarter. These banquets are held at the Delaney Hotel.

"B" Company Football

"B" Company proved its merit on the football field by triumphing over the other companies to win the 1945 season of football. But theirs was not an easy victory. It was hard fighting from the first play up through the last. But they fought and were determined—and they won. Prof. Edwin J. Brown did an excellent job of coaching.

"C" Company Football

"C" Company was marked by a fighting spirit throughout the football season. A spunky line, a vicious passing attack, a slippery backfield—these created in the other companies a hearty respect for fighting "C." "C" tied with "A" in the season. Professor Woodrow Light showed himself as a capable coach.

"A" Company

Even though "A" Company was forced to admit defeat in the gridiron race for championship, it went down fighting to the final whistle, keeping the crowd in suspense.

"A" Company's team and playing was sparked by the superior coaching ability of Professor W. A. Carlton, who has led many teams to victory.

"A" Company's fast backfield was a constant threat throughout the season.
Winter Quarter, 1946, was another victorious quarter for "C" Company. The basketball team was undefeated, winning ten games straight. Only once was the score close enough for doubt as to who was going to win the game. The first five men on the team won letters: Billy Gay, Robert Flanders, Ben Clemmons, Robert Hollingsworth, James Bynum. Professor R. G. Johnson was coach.
“B” Company Basketball

“B” Company kept up their teamwork well throughout the season. They had an experienced coach, E. J. Brown, to lead them.
“A” Company Basketball

In spite of the fact that the “A” team was composed of inexperienced and small players, they fought to the end and never lost that old “A” Company spirit. Campbell was the only letterman on the team. Professor W. A. Carlton did an excellent job as coach.

Swimming

During the Summer Quarter, 1945, the swimming event was one of the major activities on the athletic program. The three companies spent much time in developing their potential swimming ability for the great event. Master of Ceremonies was Mack Bonner. However hard it seemed that the other two companies worked, “C” Company appeared to raise the best team. Headed by Billy Wood, “C” took almost all the honors with “A” Company following up; “B” fell behind as third.

Track

A new record was set for the Emory-at-Oxford track team by Morrell S. Robinson of Jacksonville, Florida. The new time limit for the 2.2 mile “Cross Country” race was 12 minutes, 7.8 seconds, the old record being 12 minutes, 7.9 seconds. Everyone is required to participate in the race at least once during his stay at Oxford.

Baseball

Baseball is one of the best-loved sports at Oxford. As we go to press, it seems that the championship this year can go to any one of the three companies, as all of them seem to be equally matched in athletic ability. It is anybody’s season, and each team is putting forth its best efforts.

Tennis

Emory-at-Oxford has again entered inter-collegiate tennis, winning its first set of matches with Georgia Military College. During the war period, intramural tennis was played. The seven well-kept courts tend to furnish the students with ample space for tennis at almost any time.
Features
Claude Harper

Chosen from many as an outstanding leader for his charm, personality, character, and ability to lead. President of Student Body, Fall ’45, President Phi Delta Omega, Winter ’46, member of Lettermen’s Club and Junior Stewards, and an active participant in all campus sports. He is pre-med.

Allan Turner

Selected as a superlative because of his friendliness, good sportsmanship, cheerfulness, and easy-going manner. President of Phi Gamma Literary Society, Fall ’46, member of Student-Faculty Relations Committee, active member of Phi Delta Omega, and active member of Lettermen’s Club. He is pre-med.

Billy Gay

One of the most outstanding students of the year. He is amiable, capable, efficient, and sincere in everything he does. He was President of the Student Body during the Winter Quarter 45-46 and the Spring Quarter ’46. He takes an active interest in all athletics, campus activities, and especially church work. Claude is pre-ministerial.
Ranked at the top because of his ability to like all people and make them like him. Intense loyalty, moderation in all things, and fair play are his statutes. He is a Letterman, past president of Few Literary Society, and an enthusiastic church worker. Pre-ministerial.

Morrell Robinson

Awarded a place in the E.A.O. Hall of Fame for his gay and charming personality, winning smile, friendliness, genuine interest in the welfare of those around him. He was the outstanding soloist of the Glee Club, Letterman, Junior Steward, and an active church worker. He is pre-ministerial.

Clifford Bell

Occupies a seat among the outstanding for his pleasantness, thoughtfulness, good sportsmanship, uprightness of character, and sincerity. A Letterman, debater, Christian worker, leader, and fellow student, he served his campus well. He is pre-ministerial.
