Autumn brings choices and decisions
A time for commitment, a time for Hope . . .
dedication...

To our friend,
Dr. James Warburton
A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive, without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none so poor but that he can be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature's best antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone until it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as none needs a smile so much as he who has no more to give.

You do not need to leave your room.
Remain sitting at your table and listen.
Do not even listen, simply wait.
Do not even wait, be quite still and solitary.
The world will freely offer itself to you to be unmasked, it has no choice, it will roll in ecstasy at your feet.

Franz Kafka
The Great Wall of China

A man who refuses to commit himself for fear of following an insight that cannot be mathematically verified does not in fact remain free but rather enters upon the worst of all commitments — that of living his life without commitment.
He tries to live as a neutral,
deciding nothing,
and that in itself is a decision.

Karl Rahner

To hope means to be ready at every moment
for that which is not yet born, and yet not become desperate if there is no birth in our lifetime.
There is no sense in hoping for that which already exists or for that which cannot be.
Those whose hope is weak settle down for comfort or for violence;
those whose hope is strong see and cherish all signs of new life and are ready every moment to help the birth of that which is ready to be born.

Erich Fromm

My brothers, do not be surprised if the world hates you.
We for our part have crossed over from death to life;
this we know,
because we love our brothers.

Life is no brief candle to me.
It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for the moment,
And I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

George Bernard Shaw

I want, by understanding myself,
to understand others.
I want to be all that I am capable of becoming . . .
This all sounds
very strenuous and serious.
But now that I have wrestled with it,
it's no longer so.
I feel happy — deep down.
All is well.

Katherine Mansfield

That time of year thou mayst in me behold
When yellow leaves, or none, or few, do hang Upon those boughs which shake against the cold,
Bare ruined choirs, where late the sweet birds sang.

In me thou see'st the twilight of such day
As after sunset fadeth in the west,
Which by and by black night doth take away,
Death's second self, that seals up all in rest.

In me thou see'st the glowing of such fire
That on the ashes of his youth doth lie,
As the death-bed whereon it must expire,
Consumed with that which it was nourished by.

This thou perceivest, which makes thy love more strong,
To love that well which thou must leave ere long.

The heart in spring is busy,
    happy and alive.
In search of innocence.
    truth,
    insight and logic.

Spring is the time for the mind to grow,
    to expand —
and be put down,
for it can be insecure
    and cruel.

For winter's rains and ruins are over
And all the season of snows and sins,
The days dividing lover and lover,
The light that loses, the night that wins;
And time remembered is grief forgotten
And frosts are slain and flowers begotten,
And in green underwood and cover
Blossom by blossom the spring begins.

Algernon Charles Swinburne
"Atlanta in Calydon"

I'm involved passionately.
I never come out of a film
the same as I went in.
Each time I discover new capacities for feeling and emotions I never knew I had.
If you want to renew yourself,
to keep going,
you must keep close to your real self.
What is beautiful about life is that you change all the time.
Why try to escape it?

Jeanne Moreau

The other thing necessary for this education is the willingness to learn from everything and everybody,
the openness to new things.
Real growth in art and life comes to us from the outside as well as from within,
comes to us from our relationships with other things and other people.
It does not come to us from within or from without, but from within and without
at the same time,
so that we must always be building bridges.
Without bridges we go nowhere.
It is the genius of children in this matter that they know how to go out to other things and people, that they know how to build a bridge spontaneously
and to establish a relationship easily.

Eugene S. Geissler
My thanks to many people for helping me with this annual — Dr. Pate, Miss Porter, Krista Williams, David Langford, Mr. Mack.

It is easy to get sentimental about Oxford. We've all learned a lot and will learn a lot more about life and people. It's a strange thing to say good-bye, but eventually we must move on.

Pressure of time
closing me in, turning me inside out draining me of all energy, causes me to look forward to the moment when time will no longer have meaning.
(C.T.)
Until that time, good luck to each one of you, and take care.
