FOR THE RECORD...

"Get Ready for This" - The 1993 Memory. We expect this year to go down in Oxford's history as one of the best, thanks to the leadership of the sophomores, the positive attitude of the freshmen, and the willingness of the entire student body to work together. We've "recorded" this year's major events (as well as some musical hits). And just "for the record" we hope you enjoy it!
LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL...

Nothing rounds out a quality education like good times and close friends. These can be found in abundance at Oxford! Parties, holiday trips, Kroger runs, club activities, or just hanging out in someone’s room are in many ways what college is all about.
Dean William H. Murdy sets a standard of excellence for Oxford. A graduate of the University of Massachusetts and of Washington University, he is a biologist with a love for botany. He also has a special love for the faculty and students at Oxford. He leads with enthusiasm and sets high standards for everyone.
Public Enemy... Bobby Brown... Kris Kross...

RESIDENT ADVISORS

What would we do without this group of people? Sometimes they have to be serious but as these pictures show, Keneesha, David, Andres, Forest, Maribel, Daphne, Pam, and Charlee do have their silly sides!
Justin, Laurie, Allen, Alex, Caroline, Kelly, Steve, Jason (who would not allow us to take his picture because his is in the Federal Witness Protection Program), Alec, Kristy, Jeffrey, Allison and Christy (not pictured) add color to all aspects of campus life.

This year's big news: We elected Bill Clinton as President. An independent, Ross Perot, gave Clinton and George Bush some real competition. Ga.'s state flag caused a huge controversy. The Braves won the National League pennant. Internal conflicts caused war in Bosnia. The US sent soldiers to "Restore Hope" in Somalia. GA voted to have a state lottery. The King of late night, Johnny Carson, tearfully wished his fans a final goodnight.

Leadership Oxford

What would you do if the building you were in was flooding and the only way out was to swing out on a rope across the water? Oh, and I forgot to mention that the water had an electric current running through it. How would you get through an obstacle course if you were blind and your guide was mute? (Nobody can cause disasters to strike like Executive Adventure). Do you have what it takes to be a leader? LO- what an unforgettable experience!

Volunteer Oxford

Many Oxford students enjoy helping other people, and Volunteer Oxford gives them a way that they can. Under the leadership of Leanne Stone, and a volunteer committee, the program has taken off this year. Some of the projects that Volunteer Oxford has offered this year include: tutoring at Palmer Stone Elementary School, spending the night at and cooking for homeless shelters, babysitting at Allen Memorial, visiting nursing homes, and adopting a local grandparent. Thanks to all the volunteers who have shown the community “That's what love is for.”

OK, so the shower situation isn’t that great, and the beds are a little lumpy, but things like that build character. Fall Retreat is about learning how to “rough it”; it’s about making new friends, it’s about going to Tallulah Gorge and Panther Creek and canoeing and campfires and square dancing. This year had the added twist of keeping up with who had a broken nose or rope burn. Most of all, though, Fall Retreat is about learning to love yourself and finding out about others. It’s about learning how to be alone together.

The Associate Dean of Campus Life, Joe Moon, helps students with every aspect of their lives at Oxford. He always makes time in his busy schedule for students because he genuinely cares about them. Because of his hard work with Volunteer Oxford, clublife, Leadership Oxford, and the Freshman Council, he helps to keep the spirit of Oxford alive. Dean Moon's smiling face and lively sense of humor will be one of our fondest memories of Oxford. Thank you, Dean Moon, for everything!
Sammy Clark — just mentioning his name brings a smile to everyone’s lips. That’s because he knows how to make students quickly feel at home around him. He’s always there with a hug or a joke. He is a counselor, father, spiritual advisor, teacher, and friend to us all. Being around Sammy is a guarantee that life will never be dull. He is a living example of God’s love, and we will always hold him close to our hearts. We love you, Sammy!

This year has certainly been a "Great Adventure" for us. The Lone Ranger and Tonto, Laurel and Hardy, Batman and Robin, it was Snoopy and Charlie. Friends through thick and thin. Friends to the very end. I will be by your side cause you and I are friends for life..." There are a few things that we have been wondering all year. Dream Team, why does Croatia always win? Linzee, how are Barney and Fred? Why do we always sing "Lord of the Dance?" Chewy, who is your roommate? Wsllibean, why don't you ever know anything? Mr. Tamer, what do you think? How long can goldfish go without eating? Where will the Pattermans stay this summer? Can I get help from RAW BAM? Do you hear the billygoat? What time is the Mission? Sarah, why did you get your hair cut? Roly, who are Skip, Chip and Dale? Can I be a member of Sappy International? Red and Ralph, who's elbow is that? Weslay, how are those tap-ins? Jennifer, why does your closet always smell like popcorn? Contestant #1, who is that check made out to? Contestant #2, I thought this was a pity party? But doesn't she have pretty teeth? (What are y'all laughing at?) "It's so good to know I've got a friend like you."
Editors’ Page

Joanna and Rebecca would like to thank:
Terry Elam, “Terry Elam, Terry Elam, she eats shrimp and likes to peel ‘em.”
Garrard Young, “A Taylor-made man.”
Barry “Elvis” Stowe, “Thank ya, thank ya very much!”
Brian Pint, why didn’t ya tell us?
Everyone at Oxford, thanks for helping us make lasting Memories!
Our really silly friends, thanks for putting up with us, we love ya’ll! “May the Lord bless you and keep you.”
A Final Note...

"Memories light the corners of my mind, misty watercolor memories of the way we were. Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time rewritten every line? If we had the chance to do it all again, tell me would we? Could we? Memories may be beautiful and yet, what's too painful to remember, we simply chose to forget. So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember the way we were, the way we were. Pictures of the smiles we left behind, smiles we give to one another for the way we were. Can it be that it was all so simple then, or has time rewritten every line? If we had the chance to do it all again, tell me would we? Could we? Memories may be beautiful and yet, what's too painful to remember, we simply choose to forget. So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember the way we were, the way we were.
