In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women’s Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President’s Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

Chicago Cubs’ right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 home runs in 1999.

Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Tiger Woods’ PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.

Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women’s World Cup.

Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull’s game-winning goal in triple overtime.
The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

BACKSTREET BOYS
The Backstreet Boys release their smash album "Millennium" and take home the 1999 American Music Award for Favorite Pop/Rock Band/Duo/Group.

JENNIFER LOPEZ
Latina actress and singer Jennifer Lopez debuts her pop album "On the 6" scoring a dance hit with "If You Had My Love."

FAITH HILL/TIM MCGRAW
The country couple both receive nominations at the 1999 American Music Awards. Faith Hill's album "Breathe" debuts at #1 on the Billboard Top 200.

RICKY MARTIN
"Livin' La Vida Loca" and "She's All I Ever Had" take Ricky's first English album multi-platinum.

BRITNEY SPEARS
"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album, "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."

TLC returns to the hip-hop scene with "Fan Mail," featuring the singles "Come On Down" and "No Scrubs."
Natalie Portman, Liam Neeson, and Ewan McGregor star in the highly anticipated prequel to the original Star Wars trilogy.

Richard Gere and Julia Roberts reunite in this heartwarming love story about a skittish bride-to-be.

Brendan Fraser stars as a soldier in the Foreign Legion who helps unearth a wicked curse in turn-of-the-century Egypt.

Comedian Adam Sandler tries his hand at parenting to impress Joey Lauren Adams. Co-stars include Cole and Dylan Sprouse and SNL buddy Rob Schneider.

George Lucas makes history again with the 1999 release of "Star Wars: Episode 1 - The Phantom Menace." Star Wars fans waited in line days before the premiere in hopes of being one of the first to see the prequel.

"10 Things I Hate About You," a remake of The Taming of the Shrew, introduces newcomer Julia Stiles as a high school student who presents a challenge to her suitor Heath Ledger.

Keanu Reeves stars as a 21st century hacker in "The Matrix." This ground-breaking science fiction film excites audiences with computer-generated effects and superbly choreographed fight scenes.

Returning as 007, Pierce Brosnan and beauty Denise Richards carry on the Bond legacy in this 19th installment of the films.

Incredible special effects and kung-fu fighting make this sci-fi thriller an instant classic. Keanu Reeves trained for months to pull off moves like this.
Julianna Marguilies, winner of four consecutive Emmy nominations for her role as head nurse, Carol Hathaway, enjoys the fifth season, with the rest of the “E.R.” cast.

Contestants, chosen by a call-in selection process, compete to win increasing amounts of money up to $1,000,000. Regis Philbin coins the phrase of the year with “Is that your final answer?”

As the leadoff series on NBC’s “Must See TV” lineup, “Friends” continues to enjoy ratings success after six seasons, reaching an audience of 23.5 million people each week.

Neil Patrick Harris (Doogie Howser, M.D.) stars as Henry McNeely, a young book editor who is thrust into the chaotic, and often hilarious, world of a bestselling horror writer.

Featuring cast members Jessica Biel and Barry Watson, the WB Network’s wholesome “7th Heaven” continues to follow the trials and tribulations of the Camden family.

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with “Buffy the Vampire Slayer,” “Dawson’s Creek” and newcomers, “Roswell” and “Popular.” Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in “Time Of Your Life.” Animated sitcom “The Simpsons” remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening’s newest series, “Futurama,” gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, “Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?”

Starring Jason Behr and Shiri Appleby, this sci-fi drama centers around a group of aliens, posing as teenagers, who struggle to conceal their identities while discovering what it means to be human.
